

Financial Operations Ecosystem

The Institute of Financial Operations serves a broad range of core disciplines, with a main focus on the far left of the graph ('Receipts' including billings and receivables) and to the far right side of the graph ('Payments' including AP, disbursement, and reconciliation.)

In addition, our focus includes information management, data capture, and automation of the entire financial operations ecosystem.

